On behalf of the Progressive Policy Institute (PPI), I'd like to invite you to join us for a transatlantic dialogue in Paris, Brussels and Berlin from Monday, April 17 to Saturday, April 22, 2017. This bipartisan mission is designed for Chiefs of Staff and other senior congressional staff.

This will be PPI's fourth consecutive year taking top-level congressional staff to Europe. However, with a new White House and ever changing political dynamics across Europe, this will be our most consequential trip to date. The desire from key players in Europe to meet and talk with key players from Congress is at a significantly heightened level, and we think it is important, as American policy professionals, to experience and learn about the current European view not represented in press reports.

Our delegation will engage European regulators, political leaders, journalists, and industry professionals on issues related to:

- Ongoing competition investigations targeting US multi-nationals, including State Aid cases
- The impact of European privacy laws and encryption proposals on digital trade and data flows
- How the EU and European member states could respond to a US border adjustment tax
- The U.S. commitment to NATO and its future
- How to reboot transatlantic trade talks and preventing a shift to China by the EU
- The political landscape across Europe and its impact on the future of the European Union
- The effect of Brexit on the EU and US when it occurs in 2018

PPI is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization with the mission of providing educational programming on current policy issues. As such, this mission will comply with House and Senate ethics rules. PPI was part of the founding and push for the "Third Way" movement in the 1990s and has continued this work since then by maintaining relationships in Europe and producing informative and thought provoking transatlantic missions.

I hope that you will be able to join us in what promises to be an insightful and educational mission to Europe. Space is limited; please contact Cody Tucker at 202-775-0106 or ctucker@ppionline.org if you have questions or require further information.

Sincerely,

Lindsay M. Lewis
Executive Director
